Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and by blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." Cf. Jn 6:53-56.

From Father McCabe

We believe that God sees and knows all, and to the extent that we share in his life we begin to increase our knowledge, even fore-knowledge, but never reach God's perfect knowledge on this earth. Only God knows all the tendencies of each person, their options, and consequences of their choices, and thus the ultimate outcome of our personal and general history. Predestination is caught up in cause and effect, the nature of God's creation, his Eternal Life and his plan of salvation.

For example, if I eat well and exercise, I will be healthier than if I do not. It works on a spiritual level too, because if I am baptized and consistently pray daily, worship Jesus Christ our Eucharistic Lord weekly, fast, tithe, evangelize and study the Catholic Christian faith, I will grow spiritually. The minimum of staying in God's sanctifying grace as a sign of my true love for God, is described by Christ: "If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love." (Cf. Jn. 15:8-10) I have been predestined by God for a place in heaven, but will I fully attain it? Only God knows for certain, but I can be morally sure by honestly choosing to follow the Catholic faith.

As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, no one is predestined to hell, but it is up to us to choose to follow Jesus Christ into heaven. (CCC 1005-1009) Only one human person always chose to say "Yes" to God perfectly, and thus fulfilled her life perfectly as a Christian disciple – the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Jesus Christ. By honoring this truth of Mary, we honor her as our Mother since we have been Baptized into her Son, Jesus, and thus call God our Father, and Mary, our Mother. To honor Mary, then, is essential to fulfill God's Fourth Commandment: "Honor your Father and your Mother."

Thus, we celebrated as a solemn feast the Assumption of Mary, Body and Soul into Heaven, this past August 15, by recalling how Mary's predestination is the destination of all who follow the faith of her divine Son, Jesus Christ, the divine head of the Catholic Church. She is the perfect example of what God commands, and God's commandments always come with the grace to fulfill those commands of love, life and salvation. In other words, God always provides the grace that builds on the natural development of the person, to fulfill God's call. Mary was not expected to fulfill the commandments of God as an infant, but once she reached the age of reason and learned God's commandments, she fulfilled them perfectly.

Although Mary's Assumption was held by early Christians, it was November 1, 1950, that Pope Pius XII defined this doctrine as a dogma which must be held by every Catholic – to remain in full communion – as a central and thus pivotal doctrine of divine faith. We believe this dogma because God has revealed it as such, for the purpose of having us reflect on the destiny to which God calls each person loved and redeemed by Christ. Our souls and our bodies were created to be temples of the Holy Spirit through God's grace (in our case, beginning with our Baptism), just as Mary's was and is perfectly so in the fullness of heaven. The Book of Revelation, Chapter 12 clearly indicates this truth.

From the Apostolic Constitution Munificentissimus Deus by Pope Pius XII we read: "In their homilies and sermons on this feast the fathers and great doctors [of the Church] spoke of the assumption of the Mother of God as something already familiar and accepted by the faithful... Scripture portrays the loving Mother of God, ...as most intimately united with her divine Son, and always sharing in this destiny...Hence, the august Mother of God, mysteriously united from all eternity with Jesus Christ in one and the same decree of predestina-tion, immaculate in her conception, a virgin inviolate in her divine motherhood, the whole hearted companion of the divine Redeemer who won complete victory over sin and its consequences, gained at last the supreme crown of her privileges - to be preserved immune from the corruption of the tomb, and like her Son, when death had been conquered, to be carried up body and soul to the exalted glory of heaven, there to sit in splendor at the right hand of her Son, the immortal King of the ages."

Praise God we have such a wonderful Savior in Christ Jesus and a glorious Mother to intercede to him for us! With God's grace, let us fully choose to follow Jesus and his Mother into our eternal destiny – heaven.

The Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary, August 15, was on Thursday this year and thereby was a holy day of obligation, which means as Catholics in the United States we were required to attend Mass, except in cases of emergencies or other moral impossibilities (e.g., having a surgery that day).

Another way we can honor Mary, the Mother of our Lord Jesus, is to celebrate Mass on Thursday, August 22, the feast of the Queenship of Mary, 6:00 PM at Church of St. Mary, Bellechester. Then come to our Parish Picnic after Mass at the Bellechester Community Center around 7:00 PM. We will introduce those who have recently entered the Catholic Church. Come and meet and greet our new parishioners.

I encourage all to take the opportunity to go to confession during the normal times over the weekend to make it an especially fruitful celebration of our Holy Mary's special feast day, and then offer yourselves to God in Christ's sacrifice of the Mass for your personal intentions. There will be a special Communal Penance Service at Holy Trinity on Wednesday, August 21, 7:30-8:30PM with multiple priests.

Peace in Jesus Christ, through the Blessed Virgin Mary,
Fr. Thomas McCabe

Supplication For Peace to Our Lady Assumed Into Heaven

O most glorious Mother of God, raised above the choirs of angels, pray for us with Saint Michael the Archangel And with all the angelic powers of heaven to your most holy and beloved Son, our Lord and master.

Obtain for this Holy Land, for all His children, and for all humanity the gift of reconciliation and peace. May your prophecy be fulfilled:

The proud are scattered in the imaginations of their hearts;

The mighty are overthrown from their thrones, And finally, the humble are raised;

Let the hungry be filled with good things, the peaceful be recognized as children of God and that the meek may receive the earth as a gift.

May Jesus Christ, your Son, grant us this, He who exalted you today above the choirs of angels, who crowned you with the diadem of the Kingdom and has placed you on the throne of eternal splendor. To Him be honor and glory forever. Amen

Card. Pierbattista Pizzaballa, Archbishop Jerusalem

St. Mary Church Cleaning: St. Mary's church during August. No cleaning on August 16-17 and 22 due to the parish picnic. (Please sign the Adult Liability Waiver near cleaning supplies.) Contact Ellen-651-764-0231 or Mag-651-380-8181. Thank you.

Want Help With Work or College? Workforce Development, Inc. has a variety of free youth career counseling and exploration services available, from scholarships to paid work experiences in the field of your choosing. All WDI services are free! Go to <https://workforcedevelopmentinc.org/> or call the Red Wing Office at 651-385-6401.

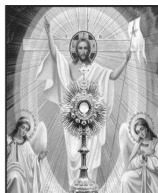

Communion Ministry for Victim/Survivors: A ministry is now available that brings Communion to victim/survivors who, as baptized Catholics, hunger for the Eucharist yet cannot come to church for various reasons (for instance, if the abuse happened inside the church or inside the confessional). Through this ministry, the Eucharist is brought directly to the victim/survivor as a loved and valued member of the Body of Christ – and the person bringing Communion is also a victim/survivor. If you would like to receive Communion, contact Paula Kaempffer, coordinator of restorative practices and survivor support, at kaempfferp@archspm.org or call 612-231-5481.

Open Hearts Study Group: All are invited to join an 8-week study group "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory" by Matthew Kelly of Dynamic Catholic. Sessions will meet on Tuesdays at Holy Trinity at 9:00AM beginning with the introductory session on August 29. The consecration will begin on September 5. Call Teresa Buck 651-380-6770 and go to www.dynamiccatholic.com/33-days-to-eucharistic-glory.html to download the free study guide.
