The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place... When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things." Cf. Mark 6:30-34.

From Father McCabe

There is such great joy and hopefulness in the birth of every child. God delights in creating immediately and directly a new image and likeness of the Divine Self through a woman and man, especially those who have celebrated the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony which gives the greatest advantage to the child and society.

Of course, no matter how a child is conceived, every baby is a precious gift from God. For every human soul comes from the loving heart and hand of God. Thus, we have great love for every child and family. This active love wants every child to come to know the perfect love and saving grace of Jesus Christ, so that they might attain the goal of their heart – the Triune God – who is Eternal Life of Praise, Perfect Wisdom and Perpetual Love.

Even Augustine (354 – 430 AD), with his natural light of reason before his conversion and who never married, named his son “Adeodatus”, which means “gift of God.” When Augustine went to Milan, his young lover and their son went with him. His mother, St. Monica wanted them to marry, but they never did, though everyone was filled with awe of their child’s extraordinary mental endowment which helped lead his parents closer to God and true conversion.

St. Monica’s prayers finally reached such a crescendo that a deluge of grace came down upon Augustine’s lover who separated herself from Augustine and joined a women’s monastery back in Carthage, Africa. There she atoned for her sins that occurred during this illicit union, and she served the Lord with great devotion to intercessory prayer.

St. Augustine writes about their separation from sin and one another: “She was stronger than I and made her sacrifice with a courage and a generosity which I was not strong enough to imitate.”

St. Monica’s prayers continued to win over the Lord, for at age thirty-three her son Augustine finally received the Sacrament of Baptism from the hands of a saintly Bishop, St. Ambrose of Milan, who had befriended both Monica and Augustine. To add to the delight of that Easter Vigil in April 24/25, 387 A. D., God also entered and washed clean the souls of Augustine’s son, Adeodatus (age 15), and Augustine’s lifelong friend, Alypius.

Through his Catholic Church, the Lord Jesus called Augustine to forsake marriage and become a Catholic priest. He was ordained in 391 A.D. in Hippo, (now Annaba, Algeria). He used his rhetorical training and skills and became famous for his preaching, sometimes preaching over ONE HOUR! (Don’t worry, but just saying, my 8 – 12 minute homilies suffice for such an eager assembly!)

Below is part of one of his sermons which emphasizes our call to grow in holiness:

“I acknowledge my transgression, says David. If I admit my fault, then you will pardon it. Let us never assume that if we live good lives we will be without sin; our lives should be praised only when we continue to beg for pardon. But men are hopeless creatures, and the less they concentrate on their own sins, the more interested they become in the sins of others. They seek to criticize, not to correct. Unable to excuse themselves, they are ready to accuse others. This was not the way the David showed us how to pray and make amends to God, when he said: I acknowledge my transgression, and my sin is ever before me. He did not concentrate on others’ sins; he turned his thoughts upon himself...

“Do you want God to be appeased? Learn what you are to do that God may be pleased with you. Consider the psalm again: If you wanted sacrifice, I would indeed have given it; in burnt offerings you will take no delight. But continue to listen and say with David: A sacrifice to God is a contrite spirit: God does not despise a contrite and humble heart...

“You now have an offering you are to make. No need to examine the herd, no need to outfit ships and travel to the most remote provinces in search of incense. Search within your heart for what is pleasing to God. Your heart must be crushed. Are you afraid that it might perish? You have the reply: Create a clean heart in me, O God. For a clean heart to be created, the unclean one must be crushed.

“We should be displeased with ourselves when we commit sin, for sin is displeasing to God. Sinful though we are, let us at least be like God in this, that we are displeased at what displeases him. In some measure then you will be in harmony with God’s will, because you find displeasing in yourself what is abhorrent to your Creator.”

Let us remember with great awe the importance of the Sunday Mass whereby Jesus Christ forgives our venial sins that we call to mind with sorrow, and makes perfect our prayers, praise and good works offered for God’s glory and the salvation of souls!

As the Catechism of the Catholic Church notes: #1394 “As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens our charity, which tends to be weakened in daily life; and this living charity wipes away venial sins... and enables us to break our disordered attachments to creatures and root ourselves in him.”

Peace in our Eucharistic Lord,
Fr. Thomas McCabe

Missionary Cooperation Plan is a program whereby the St. Paul and Minneapolis Archdiocese works with Deacon Mickey Freisen of the Papal organization Propagation of the Faith, to assign vetted priests (and others) to parishes within the Archdiocese over one weekend. This year Fr. Peter Winimi from the African country of Ghana, will be here to celebrate and preach at all the weekend Masses August 10-11. There will be a second collection during that weekend. The monies collected will be sent to the Propagation of the Faith where it will be pooled and evenly distributed to those parishes/projects that have been approved by the Archdiocese. Fr. Peter Winimi will be assisting at all Masses August 5-12 so that I might have some vacation time. However, since it is always good to spend time with my brother missionary priests, I will be spending some time touring our three churches and perhaps the Goodhue County Faith with him. Thank you for welcoming him and making him feel at home. Peace in Christ, Fr. Thomas McCabe
